23	One (1) .mp4 file with filename “Vasquez_Exhibit 6.mp4,” included in Defendants’ expert disclosures
24	One (1) .mp4 file with filename “RARE BREED TRIGGER 3 rd POSITION TRIGGER----.mp4,” bearing Bates No. USA_13730 (Marked Confidential)	Under FRE 402, 403, 611, irrelevant and waste of time. Not only is rate of fire shown in this video, but it concerns a model of the FRT-15 that has never been sold.	This exhibit is neither irrelevant nor a waste of time. Among other things, the video demonstrates how the referenced model operates relative to the FRT-15 as sold. The video also helps to explain the operation of the FRT-15, how it differs from a standard semi-automatic trigger, how it differs from semi-automatic triggers that are designed to increase the rate of fire, and how those differences help to establish that the FRT-15 is, in fact, a machinegun.

25	One (1) .mp4 file with filename "Rare Breed Triggers FRT – Animation [1080p].mp4," bearing Bates No. USA_20253	Under FRE 402, 403, 611, irrelevant and waste of time. Rate of fire shown in this video from 0:3-0:21.	Plaintiff maintains that this exhibit is relevant to the matter at hand.
26	Curriculum Vitae ("CV") of Firearms Enforcement Officer Anthony L. Ciravolo, bearing Bates Nos. USA 20237–20242
27	Expert Disclosure of Firearms Enforcement Officer Anthony L. Ciravolo submitted pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2), bearing Bates Nos. USA 20243–20299
28	Supplemental Expert Disclosure of Firearms Enforcement Officer Anthony L. Ciravolo submitted pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2), bearing Bates No. USA 20300
29	Letter from ATF to Peter A. Hunter of Hunter Kinetic Innovations, dated May 2, 2005, bearing Bates Nos. USA_20301–20313	Under FRE 402, 403, 611, irrelevant and waste of time. Plaintiff's expert testified he did not rely on past classifications in his determination that the FRT-15 constitutes a machinegun, and these classifications were nonpublic.	This exhibit is neither irrelevant nor a waste of time. Among other things, this exhibit tends to show how similar devices were classified by ATF. The classifications also tend to undermine the opinions of Defendants' experts, their characterizations of the law, and their characterization of the ATF's view of products akin to the FRT-15.
